Student Reception

Dear Student:

As you complete your final or penultimate year of law school, you are most likely thinking about your future options. Why not consider joining an international law firm such as Jones Day?

A global firm with 40 offices in major centers of business and finance throughout the world, Jones Day is consistently ranked among the world's best in client service. Our Brussels Office counsels companies doing business in Belgium, throughout the EU, and around the globe, advising them on a wide range of issues: corporate/commercial matters, litigation and arbitration, regulatory issues, competition, tax, international trade, and labor law. Since its establishment in 1989, our office has emerged as one of the largest of any US law firm in Brussels. And while our lawyers hail from jurisdictions worldwide, all of them share a firm grounding and extensive experience in this city.
