

EU Data Protection Lawyer

Hunton Andrews Kurth is a US law firm with one of the leading privacy and data protection practices in the world. The firm's privacy and data protection practice is widely recognized for its creativity, efficiency, and high-quality service. With over 900 lawyers in the United States, Asia, Europe and the Middle East, Hunton Andrews Kurth assists clients across the globe in pursuing new business opportunities and solving complex legal issues.

Hunton Andrews Kurth's Brussels office is seeking a junior EU data protection lawyer with an entrepreneurial spirit to join its Global Privacy and Cybersecurity practice. It is eager to develop its practice by selecting the right individual and enhancing his or her experience and skills. Lawyers working as part of this dynamic team will be part of a multinational and collegial team and will enjoy real potential to grow and advance within the firm.

Profile

To be considered for this exciting opportunity, you must:

- have an excellent command of both written and spoken English; additional languages are highly appreciated;
- be fully qualified (or, at a minimum, have started the qualification process) in an EU Member State;
- have a minimum of two years of professional experience in privacy, data protection, and cybersecurity; and
- have strong academics including, ideally, an LL.M. in a relevant area of law.

Hunton Andrews Kurth offers a dynamic work environment in an international team of lawyers. It embraces personal development and is committed to helping you to develop your technical knowledge and professional skills. It values its unique culture, combining high-quality client service with a real focus on people and teamwork. Positive attitude matters, and it defines the way in which the firm works, both with clients and among colleagues.

To apply, please send your CV and a motivation letter to icornil@hunton.com. All submissions will be treated with the utmost discretion and professionalism.
