About the company

Founded in Brussels in 1829, Delvaux is the oldest luxury fine leather goods house in the world and has been active without interruption ever since.

Delvaux is the inventor of the modern handbag, having filed the first-ever leather handbag patent in 1908.

Official purveyor to the Royal Court of Belgium since 1883, Delvaux has always shared and celebrated Belgian cultural references and values.

Combining creativity and savoir-faire, Delvaux crafts leather designs of timeless style. Emblematic creations include The Brillant (1958), The Tempête (1967) and The Pin (1972), The Lingot (2022) all of which are hand-crafted in la Maison’s very own ateliers in Belgium and France.

After almost 200 years since its inception, at present Delvaux spans the globe with more than 50 boutiques in strategic and unique city locations to attract an international and sophisticated clientele.
